Sondra Barbour

Vice President and General Counsel

Sondra Barbour serves as vice president and general counsel of United Launch Alliance (ULA). With a nationwide team of nearly 3,000 employees, ULA combines more than 100 years of launch history with the Atlas and Delta rocket families and continues to grow its legendary results with the new Vulcan rocket. At ULA, Barbour is the company's senior legal advisor and leads the Law and Ethics departments as well as the Office of Internal Governance.

Prior to joining ULA, Barbour served as senior counsel and assistant corporate secretary to The Boeing Company, where she provided legal advice and counsel for government and commercial satellite and intelligence systems. She also has previously held positions within the global law firm, McKenna Long & Aldridge (now Dentons) and held the position of adjunct professor of law at Southwestern University School of Law.

She serves as a director on the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) Colorado Board, in addition to prior work on ACC Southern California's Pro Bono Committee. She is a recipient of the Denver Business Journal's Outstanding Women in Business award and Axios Power Player 2023.

Barbour received her undergraduate degree in engineering from the Ohio State University and graduated summa cum laude from Southwestern University School of Law where she participated in the Law Review and Moot Court Honors Programs.
